GET OPINIONATED!

Iman makes up to $100 a week!

"I wanted a job that I could squeeze in between my classes (and do in my pj's!), so I spend five hours a week taking surveys online for companies. All I do is collect free samples and answer easy questions about soft drinks, makeup, movie trailers, bras, and more. It's fun, and each survey takes only a half hour!"

USE YOUR CREATIVITY

"I've always loved making funny illustrations. When I drew a cute stick figure cannonballing into Grand Lake, Michigan—my favorite vacation spot—I was inspired to put it on a T-shirt! I went online to pick out the color, fabric, and size of the shirts I wanted and then scanned in my drawing. I made a bunch of shirts in just a few hours—without leaving my bedroom! I sell them at four local stores, and if I need money even faster, I sell them at craft shows on weekends."

"My friend Kristina and I are super-outgoing—we both love going to parties and talking to people. So when I heard about becoming a brand rep for Xbox through one of my sorority sisters, I knew it would be perfect for us. Now we get paid to play video games with our friends—it doesn't even feel like work!"
